Good Friday and the Culture of Life
 Pope John Paul II's Gospel of Life is a wonderful testament to the sanctity and dignity of every human life. At this time, we contemplate Jesus making the ultimate sacrifice to die on the cross for mankind on Good Friday. His quote highlights the connection between Good Friday and today's struggle to protect life:--In the early afternoon of Good Friday, "there was darkness over the whole land...while the sun's light failed; and the curtain of the temple was torn in two" Luke 23:44, 45. This is the symbol of a massive conflict between the forces of good and forces of evil, between life and death. Today we find ourselves in the midst of a dramatic conflict between the "culture of death" and the "culture of life". But the glory of the Cross is not overcome by this darkness; rather, it shines forth ever more radiantly and brightly, and is revealed as the center, meaning and goal of all history and of every human life."

Diocesan Mass for Healing for Victims of Sexual Abuse at 5:00 PM, Sunday April 28 in the Morris Hall Chapel at the St John Pastoral Center in Little Rock.
