How to recognize the voice of God in daily life is essential for the Christian life. St. Ignatius of Loyola offers a few insights on discerning the voice of the Holy Spirit and the voice of the enemy.

When moving in sin the enemy suggests pleasure, seems to be a friend, presents difficulties to change. On the contrary, the Holy Spirit bothers the person, pricks the conscience, irritates or agitates the soul, the mind, strives to not allow peace to reign, encourages conversion.
